Details

Amongst the best and popular of the lands in Pakistan is the capital of the Gilgit Baltistan region, Skardu. Known for some marvelous landscapes, peaks, mountain ranges, lakes, and meadows. Skardu has been one of the most popular and busy tourist attractions for tourists not only from within the country but from outside of the region as well. Lakes like upper kachura lake and Sheosar Lake aid to the beauty of the region. The ever-famous cold desert in Skardu with its starry night skies has been the folk and tale of the tourists visiting Skardu.

The Hunza Valley has different beautiful natural sights which are the attraction for tourist. Among these attractions Baltit and Altit Fort are also well known. THE Baltit Fort, after renovation, has recently been turned into heritage museum. In Hunza, The Bazar of Karimabad is famous for its local handicrafts rugs, traditional embroidered caps, shawls, hand woven cloth (paffu) and its gemstones which are famous all over the world, particularly Ruby. The Ruby mines are famous tourist attractions.
